streetfootballworld is looking for an

Intern
Communications

to join our team in Berlin in September 2016

About us
streetfootballworld is a global NGO that harnesses the power of football to tackle some of the greatest social challenges of our time. Our work supports an international network of over 100 grassroots organisations that use football as a tool to address deep-rooted community issues ranging from refugee integration in Ireland to gender equality in Kenya. Collectively, the network empowers more than one million disadvantaged young people each year.

Our international team consists of 30 passionate people who dedicate their exceptional talent and skills to social change on a global level. To help us unleash the unique potential of football for good, we are looking for a passionate Communications Intern to join our team in Berlin.

Your responsibilities include:
• Writing and editing online and offline material, including blog posts, reports and presentations.
• Supporting our graphic designer in InDesign, PowerPoint, etc.
• Maintaining www.streetfootballworld.org and contributing to our social media channels.
• Working with the communications team on integrated campaigns (including digital, print and media).
• Enhancing our SEO and SEM.
• Support the team in administrative tasks.

Your profile
• You are a matriculated university student.
• You are fluent in English and ideally at least one other language (German preferred).
• You have excellent writing skills.
• You have an eye for detail in writing and design.
• You have experience with InDesign and standard office software, as well as with content management systems and social media.
• You have a strong interest in communication.
• You are a quick learner with the ability to self-manage your tasks.
• You are an open-minded team player who likes to work with people from different cultural backgrounds.
Our offer

- A paid internship between 3-6 months (depending on your status) and flexible starting time. Our interns receive a remuneration of €450 per month for a full-time internship.
- Exciting projects, responsibility from day one and the opportunity to shape streetfootballworld’s visual communication with your design.
- A stimulating work environment with flat hierarchies and personal development opportunities.

To apply

Please send your internship application including a CV and cover letter in a single document via e-mail to Deb Ain: ain@streetfootballworld.org.
