Basel Peace Office presents

Peace and sport:
Using sport to bridge conflicts and build peace

Featuring:

Wilson Kipketer (Denmark)
World record holder 800 and 1000 meter
Spokesperson, Paix par le Sport (Peace and Sport)

Roland Pavloski (Basel University)
Basketball Coach.
Former coach of Star Wings

Friday 24 May
6pm-7:30pm
Kollegiengebäude, Room 001,
University of Basel, Petersgraben
followed by reception and refreshments

Inspiring examples of the use of sports to build peace and reconciliation, and overcome conflicts (especially amongst youth) in schools, local communities and civil/armed conflicts.

Plus:

Alyn Ware (New Zealand)
Member, Peace and Sport
New York marathon team

Carola Szemerey (Germany)
Youth Future Project

Bert Ballegeer (Belgium)
Flanders Peace Field project (the 1914 Soccer Truce), and Project Manager of the Belgian Homeless Cup

Maren Kroeger (Geneva)
UN Office on Sport for Development and Peace

“Sport has a unique and irreplaceable capacity to unite people, going far beyond ethnic, religious or social differences. I am convinced that sport can be at the long-term service of peace”

HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco

For more information contact info@baselpeaceoffice.org
+41 788 707 219

www.baselpeaceoffice.org
www.facebook.com/BaselPeaceOffice
Basel Peace Office, c/o Seminar für Soziologie, Petersgraben 27, 4051 Basel, Switzerland