The Power of Partnership

The Forum on Productive Youth Development through sports in Africa 16\textsuperscript{th} -18\textsuperscript{th} June, 2009
KAO - offers an innovative, inclusive, high energy approach that links sports, physical activity and traditional movement games with HIV and AIDS prevention and education
Our mission:

To empower youth to positively influence their lives and the lives of others, by actively enhancing life skills through sport.
Objectives of the KAO Network

- Establish and maintain an efficient, effective, and influential network
- Strengthen the capacity of the network’s members to deliver Kicking AIDS Out! programmes
- Develop and maintain quality delivery methods, materials and standards for the network
KAO provides a forum for exchange between organisations from different countries and continents – as equal partners – with different contributions.
The power of partnership
Outcome of the partnerships

- Expertise sharing (SEDYEL MYSA South to South Exchange)
- Resource Sharing (East Africa Cup)
- Capacity Building (Livingstone LL1 Course)
- Information dissemination (KAO Biennial Meetings)
- Advocacy Opportunities (International AIDS Conference)
- Policy development (KAO Child Protection and HIV and AIDS Policies)
Why Sports?
Sports is about Participation
Inclusion
Citizenship
Sports breaks down barriers and bridges cultural divides
Sport first!
In order to utilise sport – one must enhance the possibilities of doing sport
We own our future
