We are looking for a

Partnerships Manager (f/m) with focus on public donors and foundations

starting as of 01 October 2016 in Berlin

About Us
streetfootballworld is a global NGO that harnesses the power of football to tackle some of the greatest social challenges of our time. The organisation’s work supports an international network of over 100 grassroots organisations that use football as a tool to address deep-rooted community issues, ranging from refugee integration in Ireland to gender equality in Kenya. Collectively, the network empowers more than one million disadvantaged young people per year.

Our international team consists of 30 passionate people who dedicate their exceptional talent and skills to social change on a global level. We are looking for a Partnerships Manager to join our team in Berlin.

Job Summary
The Partnerships Manager supports streetfootballworld in its grant application processes to government partners, foundations, and institutional donors like the EU. He or she will work on diverse processes, ranging from concept development to identification of potential partners, grant-writing of technical and detailed proposals and reports to stewardship of partnerships through events and meetings. The position will be located in our office in Berlin. The Partnerships Manager will report directly to the Partnerships Director of the organisation.

Main Responsibilities
• You research and identify new and relevant funding opportunities with a focus on public donors and foundations.
• You develop, write, edit, and submit grant applications for funding.
• You support with the liaison and advocacy to donors.
• You manage grants with quality and timely reports according to donor expectations and requirements.
• You plan and implement events related to networking and advocacy in close collaboration with colleagues of our communications department.
• Your other duties include back office support and translations (target language: German) as required.
Key Requirements

- You have a university degree in a related field of studies (e.g. Political Science, International Relations, Communications, or similar).
- You have professional work experience (not including internships) in researching and submitting winning grant proposals to public donors and foundations.
- Your experience in streetfootballworld countries of operation is desirable.
- You have knowledge on the funding landscape in the development sector.
- You possess a high level of intercultural communication skills and cross-cultural competence.
- You are fluent in German and English and have excellent written and communication skills.
- You are proficient with standard office software (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- You have the ability to structure and carry out your workload independently.
- You are an open-minded team player who likes to think cross-departmental and work together with people from different cultural backgrounds.
- You identify strongly with our cause.

Our Offer

- We are offering a one-year contract at fair conditions subject to your qualifications and professional experience with the option for a longer term contract.
- You can expect an international, dynamic, open-minded and passionate culture that provides freedom and space for your individual development.
- A healthy work-life balance and a flat hierarchical structure are part of our organisational values.

Would you like to play an active part in social change on a global level? Then get into the game and become part of our team! Please submit your complete application documents including details of your expected salary and the earliest possible starting date by email only to Manuel Normann, normann@streetfootballworld.org, until August 26th, 2016.

You can find additional information about us on www.streetfootballworld.org.