

Programme Manager Required

TackleAfrica are recruiting for exciting roles in Africa training and supporting football coaches to deliver HIV education.

The roles have the following timescales and start dates:

East Africa (Tanzania) – 12 month placement starting July 2017. Based in country with frequent local and national travel.

Deadline for applications – Wednesday 31st May 2017.

Details and Application

The post represents a fantastic opportunity to join a dynamic organisation in an exciting period of growth. You will be working alongside staff and volunteers from local partner organisations and building/developing networks of coaches to deliver regular high quality HIV education through football coaching to young people within their communities.

For this position flights, accommodation, local travel, work related expenses and a local living allowance will be provided.

Interviews and pre departure training take place in London, UK. Although interviews for suitable candidates can be done remotely via Skype any travel and accommodation costs to London must be borne by the applicant.

Applicants required for interview will be contacted and should be available in the weeks commencing 29th May and 5th June.

TackleAfrica is committed to equal opportunities and welcomes applications from appropriately qualified people from all sections of the community. Qualified people living with HIV are particularly encouraged to apply.

To apply, please download and read the Job Description, and complete the Application form (CVs alone will not be read). Email your completed form to TackleAfrica's Administration Assistant at recruitment@tackleafrica.org – please use this email address for any queries relating to this role.