

Empowering the Global S4D Community Through Knowledge and Connection

About the Platform

The Global Sport for Development (S4D) Community Platform, hosted by GIZ, is an online learning community committed to connecting S4D practitioners worldwide. The platform is dedicated to facilitating knowledge exchange, capacity building, and creating a global community of practice.

Connect with Peers

Network with a global community of S4D practitioners, sharing experiences and best practices.

Enhance Your Skills

Access a wide range of learning materials and participate in events designed to build your capacity in the S4D field.

Contribute to the Sector

Share your knowledge, lead discussions, and become a part of a collective effort to advance the S4D sector.

Key Features

Events Calendar

Stay informed and participate in a variety of S4D events tailored to enhance your professional development.

Knowledge Hub

Dive into a rich collection of resources, including articles, toolkits, as well as manuals and take your S4D activities to the next level.

Community Forum

Connect, share, and learn from fellow practitioners in a moderated, supportive environment.

User Profiles

Create and customize your profile to connect with peers, showcase your expertise, and find collaboration opportunities.

Resource Sharing

Contribute to the community by sharing your own resources, insights, and experiences.

Join Us Today!

Become a part of the Global S4D Community Platform and contribute to shaping the future of sport for development.

Visit community.sport-for-development.com to sign up. Let's empower, connect, and engage for a better world through sport.